

6516209474.txt

Don't be messin with my XM. If you want to know why you are getting so many responses about this, you only need to spend time on the road listening to the programming available, and you will feel the same way we all do. No one ever said they would try to pass a law limiting satellite TV, so how can you be considering limiting XM satellite radio?

I vote!